

CONTRACTS FOR NEW FAIRFIELD SCHOOL ARE LET; TOTAL $308,115

Contracts totalling $308,115 have been let by the Fairfield Municipal Authority and Fairfield Joint School board for the construction of a new gymnasium, class rooms and other facilities at the present Fairfield High School building.

The work, which will be completed by January 1, 1954, will begin within the "next few days," according to present plans, and will provide the school system with a "complete high school building" and a separate elementary school wing at the present high school site in Hamiltonban Twp., near Fairfield.

The general construction bid was let to the O. H. Hostetter Co. of Hanover for $203,750; electrical contract to the Swam Electric Co. of Hanover for $18,970; the heating to Frank E. Ferraris, Shippensburg, for $53,753 and the plumbing to Kottcamp Construction Co., Chambersburg, for $31,642. Each submitted the low bid in the various classifications.

Five General Bidders
Five contractors bid for the general contract, with the highest bid being $37,000 more than the one accepted. Five submitted bids for electrical work with the highest bid $6,000 more than the lowest. Six bids were received for each the heating and plumbing contracts, with the high bids being $5,000 more than the lowest in each case. The total of the bids was $381,115.

Buchart Engineering Corporation, York, is the architect for the new structure. They estimated the cost of the building, at the low bids accepted, as 37 cents per cubic foot, which they told the school board is one of the lowest bids for school construction in their experience during recent years.

The bids were accepted at a meeting held Thursday night at the school and the winning contractors were notified Friday. C. A. Wills, president of the school board, and George Neely, chairman of the borough authority, presided at the meeting.

Auditorium-Gymnasium Feature
Attorney Charles W. Wolf is solicitor and Saul Ewing, Jernick, and Saul, Philadelphia, are bond counsel. The one-story, brick additions to the present school building will include, Supervising Principal George Inskip said, eight elementary classrooms, an office and health room, storage room and toilets for the elementary section of the school.

The high school additions will include an additional classroom, art room, music room, health room, students' activities room, faculty room and additional office and storage space. In addition the construction will also include a 60 by 88 foot combined auditorium-gymnasium with a 24-foot deep stage and acoustical ceiling which will be used for both elementary and high school purposes. The gymnasium will have gym stands seating 350 persons, which can be rolled back against the walls when the area is used as an auditorium. For basketball games it will have a seating capacity of about 400, using the stage as well as the stands; as an auditorium it will seat about 650. The basketball floor will be 42 by 80 feet.

30-Year Bond Issue
To meet the expense of the new construction the municipal authority has sold a $365,000 bond issue, at an overall interest rate of 3.9 per cent. The interest varies depending on the length of the bonds. The entire issue will be paid off in 30 years, with different bonds paid off each year.

The expense of amortizing the bonds will be met by a $25,000 per year rental paid by the joint school system to the municipal authority. Of that amount two-thirds is paid by state reimbursement and the other one-third by local taxation.

When the structure is completed, the entire building, old and new, will present a U-shaped appearance, with the open end of the U at the front, facing the Fairfield-Zora Road. Across the U-shaped front, connecting the two wings, will be a 120-foot covered porch on which

Angry Reds Tell Allies Freed POW's Must Be Recaptured If UN Wants Truce; Split Widens

By The Associated Press
MUNSAN (AP) — The Reds today angrily told the Allies if the U. N. wants a truce it must control South Korea's rebellious government and recapture 26,000 anti-Red war prisoners freed by President Syngman Rhee.

Although the Communists protested violently at Rhee's arbitrary action, they did not rule out an armistice. But their terms appeared near impossible—the Korean prisoners have melted into the countryside with Rhee's blessing and the split between South Korea and the U. N. Command apparently was growing deeper.

Blow For U. N. Unity
South Korea's acting prime minister, Y. T. Pyun, made public a letter to Gen. Mark Clark, U. N. commander, demanding freedom for 9,000 anti-Reds left in Allied stockades. It was written Thursday, a few hours after the first big break. At almost the same time, Clark made public a letter written the same day blistering Rhee, and accusing him of breaking recent assurances that South Korea would make no arbitrary moves without consulting Clark. Rhee's action has cracked the unity of the Allies and the Reds made the most of it. The Communists listed their demands in a letter handed to the Allied truce delegation in a 25-minute meeting at Panmunjom. Addressed directly to Clark, it ended: "We are awaiting the reply of your side."

The Allied delegates made no answer and the meeting recessed indefinitely at Communist request, said to call by either side. (In Washington, U. S. officials had no comment, but said they expected a strong protest.)

4 CANDIDATES POSE PROBLEM; FAILED TO FILE EXPENSE REPORT

County election officials today were confronted with an unprecedented situation here and confessed that as of the moment they do not have the answer to what might happen.

It would appear from the regulations of the state election code that two Democratic candidates for county office and two unsuccessful Republican candidates for sheriff may be liable for a fine or imprisonment, election officials said.

It also may be possible that the two Democrats, if elected to the offices they seek, might not be eligible to serve; and that the two Republicans might be barred forever from holding any public office.

The whole thing hinged on interpretation of the law concerning the filing of expense accounts.

The law is clear that the accounts must be filed with the election board within 30 days after the primary or general election. That 30-day period following the primary election ended Thursday.

Up to this morning Democratic Sheriff Candidate Gilbert Lupp, Biglerville; Democratic Clerk of Courts Candidate Cyril F. "Cy" Weaver of McSherrystown, and Republican Sheriff Candidates John E. Millhimes and Charles D. Baird, both of Straban Twp., had failed to file accounts, the election board clerk, Clarence C. Smith, said.

Smith added that the state election code in one section specifically states that candidates who do not file are liable for a fine up to $1,000 and/or a jail sentence ranging from one month to two years.

Another section of the code provides that those who "willfully violate" any provision of the code are "forever barred" from holding the office for which they were candidates, or any other public office.

Smith said he did not know who would prosecute, if that provision of the code is to be carried out. Pointing out that the board merely administers the elections, he said: "It would be a matter for attorneys to decide." He added that he hoped there might be some provision to prevent imposition of any fine or other penalty, but added again, "There is no precedent to go by, this is a new situation."

Here And There News Collected At Random

Just because a few nice people went out of their way to say a few nice things about our news and photographic coverage of the Gettysburg College commencement this month we decided to tell you about it.

College commencement invariably comes in the midst of the commencement exercises of eight or ten high schools in The Times' area all of which require special attention, photographic and newswise. The seminary commencement usually heads the list, coming earlier in May.

All of these schools are of immense importance to their community and the county. The college, because of its larger enrollment, larger faculty and higher educational values, ranks in the top bracket. It is a tremendous asset to the community and the people in the town, in turn, want to be and are of importance to the college. The Times strives to serve all purposes, recognize the college for its position in the community and serve our subscribers to the very best of our ability. Hence, ample and full news and photographic coverage of the college commencement weekend is a highlight for the college, The Times and its readers. For the latter, it is a significant feature because of their genuine interest in college activities.

During the five days preceding the commencement The Gettysburg Times published a little more than ten columns of college news.

But the climax was reached on the Monday after the Sunday commencement when The Times gave full coverage to (Continued on Page 4)

SING SING PRISON, Ossining, N. Y. (AP)—Julius Rosenberg and his wife, Ethel, walked quietly to the electric chair last night and were executed for the crime of delivering to Soviet Russia the secrets of the atomic bomb.

Neither of the condemned spies talked, nor attempted to talk, as the last moments came.

Both entered the death chamber in Sing Sing Prison—only a few moments apart—with a firm step and a stony face. They were executed before sunset, so that the grim task would be finished before the beginning of the Jewish Sabbath.

It was the day after their 14th wedding anniversary.

They were the first non-military convicts in the history of the United States to be executed for espionage.

Crowds Demonstrate

At the hour of retribution, crowds gathered, demonstrating, in New York, London and Paris. Hysterical sympathizers, screaming and crying, milled around a speaker's stand in New York's Union Square.

Street fights broke out in Paris, and several policemen were reported wounded. In London, thousands roved the streets, waving copies of the Communist newspaper, Daily Worker, which carried a single word in giant type—"Murder."

In Dublin, two bottles of kerosene were thrown through the window of the U. S. information office. They did not explode.

But in Ossining, where the prison is located, the night was quiet. Heavy details of police and state troopers, guarding temporary barricades, met no demonstrators.

As the fixed hour approached, two telephone lines were opened between the office of Warden Wilfred L. Denno and Washington—presumably to be in touch with the White House and the office of Attorney-General Herbert Brownell.

Spend Hours Together

PEACE ON EARTH IS AARONSBURG THEME TODAY

By DICK HOENIG
STATE COLLEGE, Pa. (AP)—Developing peace on earth and good will towards all men is the task before today's session of the Aaronsburg Assembly.

More than 100 guests, prominent in every line of American life, are here to take up the problem of living above prejudices.

Basis for the Assembly is the example of religious understanding set by Aaron Levy, Jewish immigrant and founder of Aaronsburg. He gave land to people of all faiths so they could have a place to build their house of worship. Today's discussions are divided into six categories: business, home and community, education, religion, recreation and government.

For four hours assembly guests will sit with farmers, teachers, and others for frank, cross-the-table, give-and-take exchange of opinion. From the talks will come a "creed of life," to be read at an opening meeting by Hollywood actor Ronald Reagan and his wife, Nancy Davis. Following reports from each panel will be an address by Mrs. Fleur Cowles, associate editor of Look Magazine discussing "in the freed world."

Dr. Daniel A. Poling of Philadelphia, noted clergyman and chaplain of the interdenominational chapel of Four Chaplains, will report on Asia.

COURT REJECTS APPEALED CASE

The Adams County court, in an opinion handed down this morning, found that it had no jurisdiction in the charge of failing to obey the signal of an officer brought by New Oxford Chief of Police M. P. Noel against R. P. Mummet, New Oxford R. 1.

The court also found that not only did it not have jurisdiction, but neither did Justice of the Peace Claude Straley, in New Oxford, who accepted the information placed by the police officer. As a result Straley was informed by the opinion that he cannot accept any charges in the case.

According to testimony given at a hearing held earlier this month, Chief Noel became "suspicious" when he saw Mummet driving in New Oxford, and followed after him, stopping him in Oxford Twp. According to the opinion, the state motor code provides in such cases that they be brought before the closest available justice, in this case the justice in Oxford Twp., Gerald Orndorff.

The court this morning also approved the bond of George D. Baker as tax collector in East Berlin.

4-Day Shipping Strike Is Settled

NEW YORK (AP)—The four-day tie-up of U. S. shipping in Atlantic and Gulf Coast ports ended last night, when the CIO National Maritime Union signed a new contract with major shipping companies.

After initialing the pact, NMU President Joseph Curran said: "The ships will be ready to move as soon as they wish."

The union settlement with the 39 major firms, dry cargo and passenger shippers, contained the same series of wage increases provided in pacts signed earlier yesterday with eight major tanker companies.

Smaller shipping firms generally follow the pattern set by the big companies. Some already had signed individual contracts.

Bowing To Picture Starts Controversy

TAIPEI, Formosa (AP)—Quite a controversy has developed on Formosa as to whether it is idolatry for a Christian to bow before a portrait of Dr. Sun Yat-sen, founder of the Republic of China. The controversy, which has been going on behind the scenes, has sprung into the open with letters to the editors.

Many Christian students hold that it is idolatry to bow before the statues or pictures of Dr. Sun. Nonsense, said the Ministry of Education. Students in public schools, as are all Chinese citizens at all public meetings and ceremonies, are required to bow before Dr. Sun to show their loyalty to the nation.

RUSSIANS MASS MORE TROOPS ON KOREAN FRONT

By MILO FARNETTI
SEOUL (AP)—The Reds today massed some 16,000 fresh troops along the East Central front—scene the past week of the greatest Communist offensive in two years. The U. S. Eighth Army reported the Red buildup as the Air Force announced Allied air power suffered its heaviest losses of the war the past week, helping to stall the great Communist drive.

Two new Red divisions were reported moving into the Pukhan River lines, the sector where perhaps 40,000 Communist pushed South Korean troops back as much as two miles Sunday and Monday.

Fighting was light, however. Nineteen planes—including Sabre jets—went down behind Communist lines, the Air Force announced. Fourteen were lost to anti-aircraft guns and five to unexplained causes.

None was lost in dogfights, in which Sabre jets shot down 19 Red MIG jets.

Day and night, U. N. warplanes in record waves dumped bombs and jelled gasoline on Communist troops to play a major role in stemming the greatest Red drive since 1951—a drive which dented South Korean lines up to two miles.

The worst previous Allied plane loss was 16 in the week of Feb. 5-11, 1952.

Nine Sabre jets were shot down by Red guns, and three more of the swept-wing jets failed to return from enemy territory for unexplained causes, probably engine failure. Previous high Sabre toll for a week was four for the period ending April 19.

One Mustang and three Thunderjet fighter-bombers and one twin-jet Australian Meteor fighter-bomber also were lost to ground fire. The loss of a Star night fighter and one Thunderjet also was unexplained.

British Invent Automatic Mower

LONDON (AP)—Commander H. S. Pugh, a retired British naval officer, has invented a device which enables an unattended motor lawn mower to get on with the job. But there is a snag. It only works on circular lawns, and does not touch any odd corners — so the new device may also start a fashion in round lawns.

Pugh's device was demonstrated recently. The unattended mower ate up the grass in an ever-widening circle until the mown patch was 120 yards across.

The device consists of a cylindrical "tether" attached to the mower. The tether is fixed to a point on the ground and the mower set in motion. As the mower proceeds, the wire coiled on the tether pays out, and the machine runs in ever-widening circles.

Hindu Appraises American Character

ROCKPORT, Me. (AP)—The outstanding elements in the character of American people are co-operativeness, courage and candor, says a Hindu savant.

Dr. D. G. Vinod, a friend of the late Mahatma Gandhi, has just completed six months as a research consultant at the Round Table Foundation in Glen Cove. The scientist says he doesn't believe Americans are "a group of rank materialists tied down only to adolescent interests, such as sex and sports."

"Some degree of insensitiveness to the higher values of life and some insularity qualify the American temperament," he added, but he believes these are being overcome rapidly.

"DRIFT TO DREAMING"

Once while deep in meditation . . . I was captured by a dream . . . and I lived in silent splendor . . . by a cool and tranquil stream . . . all my heartaches seemed to vanish . . . and my worries seemed to cease . . . and the world was full of wonder . . . living there I was at peace . . . my abode was just a cabin . . . but to me a castle fair . . . and my labors were rewarded . . . by a satisfaction rare . . . through the beauteous summer season . . . and through winter's ice and snow . . . I was happy beyond measure . . . and my hopes were never low . . . close to God and near to heaven . . . but too soon I must return . . . till again deep meditation . . . lets me have a great solace.

Rosenbergs

and third 57 seconds each. He was dead in two and three-quarters minutes.

The humming stopped. It was 7:06 and three quarters (EST). Two guards stepped to the chair and swiftly unbuckled the straps. Two physicians, Dr. H. W. Kipp and Dr. George McCracken, approached with stethoscopes. McCracken ripped the undershirt, exposing Rosenberg's chest.

Body Is Removed
They listened for a long moment. Then Dr. Kipp said, "I pronounce this man dead."

The body was lifted onto the white table and wheeled out of the room.

A guard moved to the door leading to the corridor. He left it open an inch or two and stood there, listening.

About three minutes later, Rabbi Koslowe's voice again came from beyond the door. The guard pulled it open.

The rabbi entered, holding the prayer book almost on a level with his eyes. He read both the 15th and 31st Psalms, "Who shall sojourn in Thy tabernacle."

Ethel Rosenberg, 37, walked behind him.

Wears Shapeless Dress
She wore a shapeless green dress with a small white pattern. It had no belt. The sleeves were short and the neckline was high and round. She also wore slipper-type shoes.

Unlike her husband, she looked around the room. Her eyes flickered from face to face, across the row of witnesses and down the line of guards.

She had stopped in front of the electric chair, and she started to turn toward it. Suddenly, she stopped.

Two women had followed her into the chamber. One was Mrs. Helen Evans, prison matron, and the other Mrs. Lucy Many, former matron and now a telephone operator.

Ethel Rosenberg whirled back from the chair and extended her arm toward Mrs. Evans. Her hand was outstretched.

Mrs. Evans took it between both of hers. Mrs. Rosenberg pulled the short, white-haired matron toward her, and the two women kissed.

Each murmured, but the words were unintelligible to the witnesses. Later, Mrs. Evans said she only recalled saying "Goodbye."

Again, the black helmet, straps and leg contacts were set in place. Just before the gear was placed on her head and face, Mrs. Rosenberg closed her eyes.

She winced, slightly, as the electrode was fixed on her head. Her hair was black and short-cropped. The chamber was hot. There was no sound except the hot-whispered words of the rabbi. He kept his eyes on the prayer book, and his head was partly bowed.

Then, the switch was thrown and the metallic rattle sounded again. Mrs. Rosenberg had stretched her arms along the arms of the chair, with the palms of her hands turned upward. Now, her hands clenched.

Rosenberg Story Ends
Then, as before, the straps were taken from her chest and the doctors examined her. This time, the decision was not immediate. The result moved the stethoscopes several times, and there was a brief consultation in whispers.

They stepped away, murmured to Warden Denno, and the warden signaled the guards to replace the straps. Twice more, the switch was thrown and a buzzing hum, more vibration than sound, filled the chamber.

Then it was finished. With the second examination, Dr. Kipp looked up and said, "I pronounce this woman dead."

The second execution had begun at 7:11½ and ended at 7:16. So closed the story of Julius and Ethel Rosenberg which began more than three years ago with the arrest of Dr. Klaus Fuchs, German-born atomic scientist, who was working in an atomic laboratory in Great Britain.

That was in February, 1950.

RUSSIA CALLS 25,000 TROOPS TO QUELL RIOT

BERLIN (AP) — U. S. Maj. Gen. Thomas Timberman declared today that the Russians are throttling rebellious East Berlin with two armored divisions totaling 25,000 combat troops.

The American commander in Red-encircled West Berlin disclosed this figure at a news conference called as the mailed hand of Russian martial law gripped Red-ruled East Germany for the fourth straight day and threatened more executions by Soviet firing squads.

The Communists announced that "many paid provocateurs," seized during the riotous workers' demonstrations Wednesday, were facing Soviet military courts. One West Berliner already has been executed the Russians announced.

Widespread Uprising

Timberman said reports he had received confirmed indications that the uprising was widespread. He added that one of the worst trouble spots appeared to be the Leuna synthetic gasoline refinery near Halle, which has been swept by a huge fire. This plant, East Germany's largest single enterprise, employs 23,000 workers.

Although Red officials claimed last night the unrest had died down, East zone railwaymen reported that many industries in the East still were crippled by strikes.

At least 1,500 East Berliners were estimated to be under arrest. Rumors placed the German dead at over 100 and even official Communist sources indicated the property damage was enormous. State chain stores were looted, government buildings—including police headquarters—were burned and in Lancaster High School with the beginning of the autumn term.

Mrs. Harry A. Helman continues to improve and is able to attend to most of her home duties after a recent operation at the Hanover Hospital.

Real Race In American Loop Developing For Second Place As Yanks Hold 10-Game Lead

By BEN PHLEGAR
Associated Press Sports Writer

The big question around the American League right now is "Who do you like for second?"

It's true that the New York Yankees' tremendous first place lead has been shaved to a mere 10 games, but if you look a little deeper into the standings you find that a real battle is developing for the runner-up slot.

Only three games separate second place Cleveland from fourth place Boston with the Chicago White Sox sandwiched in between. Even Washington and Philadelphia can't be counted out of the race for second.

Senators Lose
The Senators are five lengths behind the Indians and A's, although now in the midst of a three game losing streak, are only 7½.

The Indians whipped Washington, last night, marking the first time they have won a game on the same day that New York lost one since May 8. The Yankees bowed to Ted Gray and the lowly Detroit Tigers, 3-2.

The White Sox defeated Philadelphia, 5-2, and the Red Sox, although tamed considerably after their wild scoring spree of the past two days, beat the St. Louis Browns, 4-1.

Giants Wallop Braves
In the National League the Braves absorbed their worst beating since moving to Milwaukee. The revitalized New York Giants awamped them, 15-1.

Brooklyn broke a four game losing streak by taking the second half of a doubleheader from the Chicago Cubs, 7-1, after the Cubs had come from behind to take the free-hitting opener, 11-8.

The third place St. Louis Cardinals kept rolling with a 10-2 triumph over Pittsburgh, their ninth victory in their last 10 games. Philadelphia whipped Cincinnati, 10-3.

11th For Roberts
Big Mike Garcia breezed to his eighth victory, an eight hitter, against the Senators who couldn't break into the scoring column until the last two innings.

The White Sox blasted the A's Rookie Marion Fricano for 11 hits, including a two run double by Bob Elliott in the ninth, to hand him his second loss against four victories. Sandy Consuegra, with expert help from Harry Dorish in the ninth, won his third.

Billy Goodman of the Red Sox ran his hitting streak to 15 games with a pair of doubles and a single against the Browns.

Robin Roberts won his 11th game in the Phil's victory over Cincinnati. Tommy Glaviano, who took over second base from Connie Ryan, homered twice for Philadelphia.

The Yankees had a narrow squeak before nipping the Cubs 8-7 in a Little League game Friday evening to maintain their undefeated record.

After yielding five runs in the first inning, the Cubs fought back and finally knotted the score at 7-7 in the bottom of the fifth frame.

With two out in the top of the final inning, John Sauter walked and John McClellan hammered a triple to score Sauter with the winning tally.

The Cubs filled the bases in the last of the final frame but a ground-out ended the threat.

MOTHER AT 10; GIVES UP BABE

YOUNGSTOWN, O. (AP) — A 10-year-old mother played with two dolls today in a home for unwed mothers while welfare authorities prepared to offer her six-day-old daughter for adoption.

The girl showed little interest in the baby and preferred the dolls she brought with her when she entered the Florence Crittenton Home last February, said Mrs. Esther Stuhlfire, home superintendent.

Mrs. Stuhlfire said the baby weighed just an ounce under six pounds. The fifth-grade mother, whose name was withheld, was so tense and frightened she was in labor 56 hours.

Father of the baby was a 50-year-old man who lived in the same apartment building and was a close friend of the little mother's foster parents, Mrs. Stuhlfire said.

The girl's mother's birth date is recorded as Feb. 13, 1943. She is five feet, three inches tall and weighs 115 pounds. The American Medical Association in Chicago said it knew of at least two American girls of 10 who had children through full-term births.

HARRISBURG (AP) — The State Highways Department estimated today that Pennsylvania's 10 state-operated toll bridges should be freed in about three years.

The department at the same time reported that the 10 spans have been taken in $4,182,665 in tolls since the state took them over in late 1949 and early 1950.

OLSON WINS U. S. MIDDLE TITLE; FACES TURPIN

NEW YORK (AP) — Calm, poker-faced Carl (Bobo) Olson believes he will beat England's Randy Turpin "on style" and win the world Middle weight championship in August.

Shortly after he handed durable Paddy Young an artistic lacing in Madison Square Garden last night to capture the American 160-pound crown by a unanimous and very big margin, balding Bobo said "I've got the style to beat Turpin."

Olson and manager Sid Flaherty were eager for the clash with Turpin but Flaherty said he was not happy with promoter Jim Norris' choice for the site. Norris wants to put it on in New York's Yankee Stadium on Aug. 27. Flaherty said he prefers San Francisco, his and Bobo's home town.

Judges' Cards

Last night's massacre, which drew 7,418 fans, grossed $36,250 at a $12 top. The 15-rounder was broadcast and telecast nationally. With an extra $50,000 for radio and TV, each gladiator collected a total of about $23,000.

Norris and Flaherty will do their dicker for the next couple of weeks over the long distance telephone. Olson and his manager expected to be home in San Francisco by tonight.

The 24-year old young, a power puncher with his left, was in the fight in the first three rounds, briefly again in the seventh, and eighth and in the fifteenth. Otherwise it was no contest.

At the finish judge Arthur Susskind scored it 12-3, Judge Arthur Aidaia had it 11-3 and referee Petey Scalzo, 9-4-2. The AP scorecard scored it 11-3-1.

There were no knockdowns and nothing close to one although both got in their Sunday punches. Especially in the second. In that stanza Young first shook up Olson with a left hook to the jaw but slope shoulder Bobo came back with a left hook of his own that seemed to rock Paddy.

Young, who weighed 159½ to Olson's 159½, thought he could wear down the 3 to 1 choice with body bombs. Bobo took them without flinching and returned all with interest.

FATHER AND SON WIN SKEET TITLE

HUNTINGDON, Pa. (AP) — A Harrisburg father and son today owned the Pennsylvania Open Skeet title after scoring first and second respectively in the first event of the three-day Pennsylvania Skeet championships.

William M. Hollinger, in taking the top spot, broke 99 out of 100 birds put up in the match to top the field of 17 gunners yesterday. He was followed by his son, Frank who hit 98 to 100 birds.

Sylvester Shaw, Creighton, Pa., took third with a 97 for 100 birds put up.

Meanwhile, 410 and 28 gauge sharpshooters paired off for the running of the two-man team Feature shoot of the program comes Sunday with the all-bore championships.

York Springs Tops White Hall 2-1

York Springs edged White Hill 2-1 Friday evening in a Bi-County League game on the losers' field. The winning run in the seventh came via a walk to Reinecker and singles by Hardy and Murtorf.

Plainfield knocked the Blue Raiders out-of-first place on a 6-0 triumph while Lisburn defeated Mt. Pleasant 7-2.

Editor Gets Job In State Department

WASHINGTON (AP) — Robinson McIlvaine, editor-publisher of the weekly Downingtown, Pa., "Archive," has been sworn in as a special assistant to Assistant Secretary of State Carl W. McCord, public affairs chief in the State Department.

A Republican who set up the national Eisenhower-for-President headquarters in Washington, D. C., McIlvaine's job was described in a State Department announcement as dealing primarily with the "domestic public affairs and information program of the department"—that is, informing the American people on foreign policy.

Bill Bruton, speedy rookie outfielder for the Milwaukee Braves, led the Northern League in stolen bases with 66 in 1950.

Boy's Body Found In Susquehanna

HARRISBURG (AP) — A boater yesterday found the body of David F. Miller, 19, Harrisburg, who disappeared in the Susquehanna River Tuesday when his canoe upset.

Police said Miller, a hotel bell hop, and Allen Webb, 17, of Harrisburg were diving from the canoe when the craft upset. Webb clung to the boat, but Miller tried to swim to shore. Webb told police that Miller apparently became exhausted and disappeared.

Miller's body was found by Fred Reser, 14, of nearby Camp Hill who was motor boating on the river.

RULE OUT BOOST IN STATE FUNDS

By LEONARD A. Unger

HARRISBURG (AP) — Chairman W. W. Waterhouse (R-Erie) of the House Workmen's Compensation Committee today ruled out an increase in unemployment compensation benefits by the 1953 Legislature.

"We were pretty liberal last session and it's really getting high in comparison with other industrial states," he told a newsman.

The present scale of maximum jobless benefits was increased to $30 a week for 26 weeks two years ago.

Both the AFL-Pennsylvania Federation of Labor and the Pennsylvania CIO Council have been pressing to boost the maximum weekly rate to $35 and the number of compensable weeks to 30. A host of bills to carry out the new increase are in Waterhouse's committee.

"You know we can get unemployment compensation payments to the point where there won't be any incentive to work," Waterhouse said.

News Briefs

ELKTON, Md. (AP) — "Jealousy over another woman" was given as the motive today in the shooting death of 25-year-old Philip Gray, and State's Atty. J. Albert Roney Jr. charged the victim's wife with the slaying.

Roney said he decided to file the charge after investigating Mrs. Ella Elizabeth Gray's story that she shot her husband accidentally Wednesday morning.

WILKES-BARRE (AP) — An escaped prisoner charged with the slaying of a 94-year-old Tunkhannock woman was captured Thursday after 13 hours of freedom.

William J. Johnson, 32, who scaled the Luzerne County Prison's 25-foot wall in his bid for freedom, was captured by Sgt. Joseph Austin and Patrolman Stephen Lawry of the Wilkes-Barre police in the rear of a dairy company plant about one mile from the prison.

PHILADELPHIA (AP) — Brainwashing, under the guise of anti-Communism, has become for "millions of Americans a substitute for thinking," the editor-in-chief of Time, Inc., declared yesterday.

Henry R. Luce, recently returned from Italy where his wife is serving as U. S. ambassador, addressed the 67th commencement exercises of Temple University. He was awarded the honorary degree of Doctor of Journalism.

In 1948 when playing for the Boston Braves, Johnny Sain became the first pitcher in the history of the National League to lead the loop in sacrifice hits (16).

CROWDS STAGE DEMONSTRATION ON EXECUTIONS

LONDON (AP) — Wild demonstrations protesting the executions of U. S. atom spies Julius and Ethel Rosenberg were staged in London and Paris last night. A broadcast by Radio Bucharest said Communist-ruled Romania was deeply indignant.

In Paris, armed riot police arrested more than 1,000 persons in breaking up attempts by mobs to march on the heavily-guarded U.S. Embassy. At least one man was shot. Two news photographers and several policemen were reported injured.

Police in the British capital also were mobilized to control equally bitter crowds shouting anti-American slogans.

Wild Demonstrations

The Bucharest radio said Romania "has learned with deep indignation" of the Rosenberg execution, which the Romanian people considered "an act of flagrant injustice and a new attempt against the cause of peace."

The main disturbance in Paris broke out on the fashionable Rue Royale when police blocked a noisy throng of several hundred persons that started surging toward the American embassy on the Place De La Concorde.

Wildly shouting demonstrators gathered along the Champs Elysees and other central points several hours before the execution deadline at Sing Sing Prison—after midnight European time.

In London, police formed a shoulder-to-shoulder cordon around the entrance to Prime Minister Churchill's house at No. 10 Downing St. to hold back yelling demonstrators. As Big Ben tolled the scheduled death hour, the throng set up a groan and then fell silent for a moment.

Dillsburg

DILLSBURG (AP) — A daughter was born at the Carlisle Hospital Saturday to Mr. and Mrs. Roy Wehler, Franklintown.

Members of the Franklintown United Brethren Church were among those participating Thursday at the quarterly conference of the Franklintown EUB Church, served by the Rev. Myrl T. Slaybaugh, at the South Mountain Union Church, when the guest minister was the Rev. Dr. Meadows from Chambersburg.

Mrs. Dale Stock, Franklintown, has been under treatment at Harrisburg General Hospital.

A program illustrating the art work done by children of the Franklintown area during the past two weeks they spent attending the Daily Vacation Bible School sessions at the United Brethren Church was conducted as a closing exercise of the classes Friday evening at the church.

The Franklintown property of Mrs. Charles Bowman has been tenanted by Mr. and Mrs. Clyde Rosenberg Jr., formerly of Mechanicsburg.

PHILADELPHIA (AP) — The cost of Bridge connecting Philadelphia and Camden, N. J., went up a nickel to 25 cents at one minute past midnight today.

The boost in tolls went into effect in an unusual 30-second ceremony enacted by bridge officials between two blasts of a policeman's whistle.

The first screech of the whistle was the signal for other officers, stationed 100 feet east and west of the toll gates on the Camden approach, to stop traffic in all 12 lanes.

The toll takers on duty then dumped their cash receipts into canvas bank bags and marched out of their booths. As they left, 12 other collectors stepped into their places.

The whistle blew again and traffic resumed—with the higher toll in effect.

Idaville Blanks Friendship 6-0

With Sterling Singley hurling three-hit ball and fanning 12, Idaville blanked Friendship 6-0 in a Cumberland County League game Friday evening at Carlisle. Singley walked two and hit another batsman.

Newville topped the Shippensburg VFW 4-1 and Masland defeated Mt. Holly Springs 7-4 in other games.

2 Rooms By Fall

One small 60-foot wing, to be added to the front west side of the present building, and containing a high school class room and health room, is to be completed by September 1, for the opening of school.

The gymnasium-auditorium will join the present cafeteria and classrooms addition to the original school building, and the eight room elementary section and other elementary rooms will head north from the east end of the gymnasium. A hallway will also be erected from the elementary school section to the cafeteria, permitting both elementary and high school students to use the cafeteria.

Supervising Principal Inskip said that when the new addition is completed the elementary section will be separate from the high school section, yet both would be connected through the hallway and auditorium-gymnasium.

Attendance Up 35 Pct.

With 383 elementary and 250 high school students expected for the beginning of the coming school year in September, present facilities will be crowded until the new additions are completed.

Inskip said the jointure will continue to rent two classrooms in the IOOF building until the new addition is built, and then will move the students to the new school. The crowded Fairfield school will also have a reduction in the number of students there, being reduced to "a more comfortable three rooms," Inskip said.

Attendance in the Fairfield Jointure schools has increased 35 percent in the last five years, Inskip reported today. He added that the system, according to present census figures, will have about 800 students within a few years, more than 400 in the

HOUSE GIVES IKE "VOTE OF CONFIDENCE"

By RUSSELL BRINES
WASHINGTON (AP)—Rep. Vorys (R-Ohio) said today the House, by approving intact a $4,998,732,500 foreign aid program, has given President Eisenhower a 2-1 "vote of confidence to go out and make a record around the world."

Vorys led the administration fight yesterday to prevent slashes in the foreign aid program which finally was approved by a 280-108 roll call, after a sharp seven-hour debate. More Democrats than Republicans voted for it.

Strong Democratic support also helped GOP leaders beat down a dozen attempts to slice the total by as much as half a billion dollars. Speaker Joseph W. Martin (R-Mass.) and Rep. Rayburn of Texas, the Democratic leader, both urged support for the President.

The measure now goes to the Senate. There it may encounter less trouble than was created in the House yesterday by a coalition of Midwestern Republicans and some Southern Democrats.

On final passage in the House, 119 Republicans, 160 Democrats and one Independent voted for the measure. It was opposed by 81 Republicans and 27 Democrats.

SPY'S MOTHER COLLAPSES ON WORD OF DEATHS

NEW YORK (AP)—Flickering candles, age-old symbols of Jewish Sabbath piety—and of mourning—cast shadows over the bent form of a bewildered, grieving old woman.

The woman, Mrs. Tessie Green-glass, collapsed last night as she learned her daughter, Ethel, and son-in-law, Julius Rosenberg, had been executed as atom spies. A doctor rushed to her side.

The candles' rays shone dimly through the neat, lace-work curtains of Mrs. Green-glass' humble, Lower East Side tenement home.

Children On Farm
Far uptown, in Washington Heights, another aged mother, Mrs. Sophie Rosenberg, was told that her son had paid the supreme penalty for betraying his country. A doctor came here, too, to spend the night with the shaken, 71-year-old woman.

In Toms River, N. J., two youngsters, Michael and Robert Rosenberg, aged 10 and 6, played on a farm that has been their home for a year and a half.

Michael reportedly learned from a news bulletin, broadcast while he watched a baseball game on television, that his parents were to die before sundown.

LONDON (AP)—The Daily Express said today that Britain will explode the world's biggest atom bomb early next year. The Ministry of Defense, which handles Britain's atomic program, refused to comment on the story.

LOS ANGELES (AP)—Film actor Franchot Tone is to receive approximately one million dollars from the estate of his mother who died April 16.

Best definition of a monologue is a conversation between a motorist and his back-seat driver.

Safety Comes Of Age

Skill may play its role in accident prevention but there is a growing belief that character is the more important factor. Some of the most brutal accidents appear to be caused by those who know well enough how to handle cars skillfully. What to do in event of an emergency seems to be of far less consideration than how to drive so that emergencies are avoided. I forget the name of the Frenchman who said that "Men succeed less by their talents than their character," but apparently he had a point.

Experience has demonstrated that it is especially hazardous to assume that skill alone is the secret of safety because skill is largely a self-centered ability. What is needed in so many instances is a willingness to be tolerant of the mistakes and offense of others. Needed, too, is an understanding of the reasons others may act as they do. Patience, kindness, charity, love and hope are among the attributes which go such a long way toward that constant cooperation which is essential to group use of streets and highways.

Down With That Pan

Now is the time to take down that engine pan and have it manually cleaned out. Why now? Well, if you are traveling and the motor develops a sticky valve or other minor disarrangement you may be forced to put some additives in the crankcase. These will effectively free up the sticky valve but since they are solvents they will also stir up any sludge that may have accumulated in the oil pan and in the valve compartment. It is unwise to stir up accumulations of such proportions so have them manually removed now. After such removal it is a good idea to use additives or detergent oils to help with the final cleansing operation, and also to prevent valve and ring sludge.

How's That Booster?

Jumping to the conclusion that the vacuum booster of the fuel pump is ailing just because the windshield wipers are sluggish, is something to avoid. Perhaps the wiper motor is below par itself. Or the sluggishness may not be judged at the right time. If the pump's booster is faulty the wiper blades will slow down when the engine is accelerated. Pump trouble also is indicated by a marked increase in oil consumption. But the better test is to have your mechanic use a vacuum gauge.

Mechanic Joe Speaking

"I am glad to see so many car owners beginning to notice what happens at the oil filler pipe under varying driving conditions. One customer noticed that smoke came from the pipe when he accelerated the car but that this would become less noticeable as the engine heated up on a long grade. That was his cue that the piston rings were leaking combustion pressure and that exhaust gases were blowing into the crankcase. As the engine heated the rings expanded more, held compression better.

"Another owner noticed oil coming from the pipe. This indicated clogged crankcase vents. Pressure was building up within the case, causing oil to be forced out. Incidentally, if crankcase vapors are quite noticeable the engine may need a change of oil."

Short Reaction Safer

When one driver justified his tardiness in starting to apply the brakes as a virtue because it prevented him from locking the wheels and perhaps throwing the car into a skid I was interested in the reaction of a listener whose views on the matter were diametrically opposed. The more experienced operator advanced the argument that with a slow reaction time much valuable space is lost and as soon as the driver discovers this he may be forced to try to make up for lost time by overbraking. This more rational view of it recommended a short reaction time as a safeguard in that it requires less vigorous braking.

For summer motoring here are several little tricks that may help you some day if the engine is running hot and ordinary checking of the cooling system fails to help the situation:

Helps It Run Cooler

A quart of tune-up oil, or valve oil additive, in the crankcase along with the regular oil will help the valves and, in turn, will make the engine run smoother. Apply some dressing to the fan belt as it may be slipping a little. If the car is heavily loaded don't use overdrive. The engine will work less in conventional.

Alignment For Doors

One reason why car doors sometimes do not line up properly is simply because their hinges are not tight enough. But the remedy isn't mere tightening of the familiar hand twisting of a Phillips head screw driver. Essential to a proper job here is the screw driver in combination with a torque wrench. Righten to the 18 to 20 pounds range.

It always comes as a surprise to the motorist with fuel system trouble to learn that if he had converted a few dollars in his wallet to a full tank of gasoline he could have been spared all the trouble. The gas has to be purchased anyway, and while it is in the tank it serves to help check condensation. Water doesn't usually get into the tank from the gasoline pump, even if poor grades of gas are bought. It comes mainly from the air, through condensation.

While this sort of thing is especially troublesome in winter because of condensation when an empty heated tank is taken from the garage into the cold outdoors, and also because water content in the gas may freeze in the lines of carburetor, we have the trouble in summer too because there is a marked drop in temperature of the gas tank when the car is subjected to wide swings in temperature. It may, for instance, be broiling hot in the afternoon sun and then run into a shower where the tank is splashed with cold water.

If They Ask You

Few words in the lexicon of motoring are as freely thrown around as "horsepower" yet if you find one car owner out of a thousand who can define the term you will be doing well. One pitfall is that we are inclined to confuse horsepower with "work" which is just one of the ingredients.

"Work" is defined as a force acting through a distance. For instance if 100 pounds are lifted 10 feet the amount of work equals 1,000 foot pounds. The rate of doing this work is known as "power." Thus we now have introduced the element of time. Thus when used as a unit of power in rating an automobile engine, one horsepower is the completion of 33,000 foot pounds of work in one minute.

What's Your Trouble?

Q. Should lubricant ever be used in the carburetor or on carburetor parts? H. L. M.

A. Engineers caution against oiling carburetor parts, but there may be exceptions where, for example, a car is used regularly at the seashore. Solvents are better for the carburetor than lubricants because of their cleansing action.

Q. Should brakes be taken up for summer use, even if the car stops well? K. F.

A. It is well to have brake shoe clearances at their minimum in summer because of the possibility of the brakes becoming wet when driving is a very heavy shower. There will also be less fade on hills if clearances are minimum. Let your mechanic decide this.

Q. Does the amount of gasoline in the tank have any effect on the efficiency of the headlights? H. N.

A. A full tank adds rear-end weight, increases rear-end sag. That tends to tilt the headlights up. When testing lights it is a good idea to have the tank filled.

Q. What would cause the car to run rough at speeds over 35 miles per hour. I notice a tendency for the front wheels to shimmy but they have been balanced. There is no looseness in the drive line, the universal joints having recently been serviced. Wm. G. T.

A. I suspect that there was some error in assembling the joints and that the propeller shaft now is out of balance.

Q. It seems to me that the engine of my car runs cooler this summer although I did not turn off the valve leading to the hot water heater. Would there be any connection between these two? J. M. B.

A. Yes. The hot water heater adds to the cooling system's capacity.

Q. I have been told that if tires are unbalanced they will wear spotty. Recently checked the rear tires on my car and found one of them in need of balancing, but there was no spotty wear. Why not? S. MCB.

A. The rear wheels cannot pivot so when they pound you do not get shimmy as with front tires and so not the same condition.

Q. When I have been driving the car for an hour or so, and stop, I notice smoke coming from under the front fender. It isn't much, but just enough to keep me guessing. What do you think would cause this? N. K. W.

A. This is smoke from one of the lower crankcase vents. It isn't anything to worry about, but I would have the vents cleaned out, including the oil filler pipe. Also you may find that the oil is thinned down and diluted. Rings may also be gummy or worn.

Mr. Russell will answer questions regarding the safe care and operation of your car. Just address him at 254 Fern St., West Hartford, 7, Conn., and enclose stamped, self-addressed envelope for a personal reply. There is no charge.

PARIS (AP)—President Vincent Auriol sharply told France political leaders Friday to put aside their jealousies and bickering and map out an agreed program which will bring an end to the country's 30-day cabinet crisis.

The president acted after the National Assembly had thrown out his fourth candidate for the post—Radical Socialist Andre Marie—early this morning. Marie got only 272 votes, far short of the 314 needed for investiture. Paul Reynaud, Pierre Mendes-France and Georges Bidault had been defeated before him.
